Direction Générale de la Protection Civile – DPC

(Directorate General of Civil Protection)

The current DPC was established by a Decree of 15 December 1997 which covers the missions and organization of the Ministry of Interior. In the following years the status and tasks changed. Following the Decree of 16 January 2009 the official name became Direction Générale de la Protection Civile (Directorate General for Civil Protection).

Chain of Command:

- The DPC belongs to the Ministry of Interior and its director reports to the Minister of Interior.
- On Regional levels the Regional Civil Protection Commands are responsible for the security of the population and property. DPC is placed under the authority of local governors or regional administrations.
- The High Commission of Civil Protection prepares, organizes and implements civil protection measures. Its members are representatives of relevant ministries.
- The Permanent Inter-ministerial Committee for Civil protection coordinates the actions of different services in the areas.
- The Commission or Prefectural Provincial Civil Protection register the resources (human assistance, material, etc.) that are available within the prefecture or the province.

Gendarmerie Royale Marocaine

(Royal Moroccan Gendarmerie)

At independence of Morocco, the Moroccan Royal Gendarmerie was created by Decree dated 29 April 1957 and replaced the French gendarmerie legion of Morocco. In fact it just prolongs the organization, principles and tasks of the former Legion. The Gendarmerie is part of the Royal Armed Forces (FAR).

The Royal Gendarmerie consists of

- The General Headquarters of the Royal Gendarmerie
- The Territorial Gendarmerie
- The Mobile Gendarmerie
- The Air and Maritime Gendarmerie
- Specialized Units, including the Air Group, the Security Intervention Unit, the Royal School of Gendarmerie Officers and other training facilities.
